Summer Vacation Season

Many families will be heading out for vacations or weekends away during the summer.

As you are traveling we wish you safety, enjoyment and relaxation.

Unlike people, however, the church's expenses do not go on vacation.

We ask and encourage you to remember that your financial contributions are relied upon even in your absence from our worshipping community.

Thank you for your continued generosity

Gratitude

Well, another birthday has passed. The round years really bother me. However, one either gets older or one doesn't. In spite of my griping, I am grateful for another year. I am grateful for fifty years of marriage with a man whom I appreciate and love more each year. I am grateful for my sons and for their families. I am grateful to be loved. I have not been attending services, but I am grateful that I can watch them on my computer. It makes me feel connected with all of you. We are one body in Christ.

I am grateful for my friends who lead me in meditation by phone, and that dear Charlotte has been able to join us from miles away. So very grateful.

I am grateful for small things, like finding strawberries when I thought the season was over. I am grateful for the lake and the rain and the sun.

The big things and the small things are all gifts of God. Sometimes we don't know it's a gift at the time. It may be months--even years--before we can look back with gratitude. Be grateful for every step of the way, for each step prepares us for the next.

I am grateful that social media has kept me connected with old friends and family. I am surprised and grateful that so many of them believe in Jesus as our Savior! All one of them has to say is "I need prayer", and more than a hundred voices join in praise.

God has opened my eyes and my heart. I am grateful for every day, no matter if I seem agitated at times. I am at peace.

From my family to yours, we wish for you peace of mind. Accept with gratitude the grace of our God and our salvation.

Your servant in Christ,
Marilyn DiLuzio Rizzo

Servant Outreach

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Due to the Corona Virus, the Messiah Prayer Shawl group will not meet until it is safe to return. However, our group is working from home and doing the best we can.

Right now we are in need of more volunteers who are talented or willing to learn to knit or crochet shawls from their home.

During the pandemic it can be a blessing to you and to the person who receives a mantel.

If you are interested in helping us out with this ministry, please call Shirley Damon at 814-899-8805 with any questions or concerns. We can provide patterns, instruction if needed and yarn. Thank you!

Prayer Shawls are available at the Church office. Please contact Shirley Damon or the Church office.

Sewing Circle

Due to the COVID-19 virus, Project Linus sewing circle will not be meeting at this time. Instead we are sewing blankets at home! If anyone is interested, we are always in need of talented volunteers. We can provide material and blanket ideas if needed. If you are interested in helping, please call Joyce Hauser with any questions at 814-825-3919. Thank you!

Do you like to sew? Need something to do? The sewing group is working on lap robes or blankets for the City Mission and Project Linus from home.

Bethany Outreach

The collection box for donations has been removed from the Narthex, but you can still drop off men's and boy's clothing!

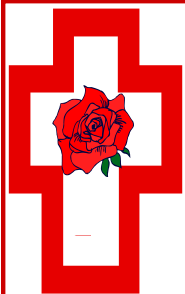

Clothing can be dropped off at the office or in the Narthex. Talk to Anna Mae or Karen Pistner if you have any questions.

So far our Sewing Group has made over 20 Project Linus blankets for children!!

Contact Joyce Hauser if you would like to help make blankets for children!

Servant Outreach /Parish Health Ministry Team will meet August 1 at 9:45am in the Study Lounge.

The Sewing Group will also be working on some quilts for the Upper Room. The quilts are hand tied. They will meet in the sewing room. Date and Time to be determined. Contact Joyce Hauser if you are interested in helping!

Life Transitions

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!" 2 Corinthians 5:17 NIV

Life never stays the same. There are several stages with unique challenges that make each one memorable. As new parents you add new responsibilities and a baby to your life while trying to establish yourselves as a couple. This new role means sharing your partner with someone else so make sure you talk to each other, have a date night, and share your struggles. Adjustment is easier when you know what challenges exist.

The next stage is the teen years and the bid for independence. This coincides with financial concerns such as maintaining a home, supporting the family, preparing for college, and possibly helping an elderly parent. Know that the caregiver role for your child is starting to end. To prepare your child for adulthood, teach him/her about financial and personal responsibility and be open with your spouse about any conflicts you have about letting go.

Next is sending your child off to college, career, or marriage. You are no longer the parent/controller but a friend/advisor. If this is your last child it may mean reconnecting with your spouse since the previous years have been focused on your child(ren). You might also be adding the role of caregiver for a parent. Keep in mind as you struggle with your changing roles, your parent is also struggling with his/her loss of independence. Be patient, include your parent in decisions when possible, ask siblings and friends for help, and be honest about your feelings.

The last stage is retirement where some have a loss of identity because they no longer work while others find new beginnings. To make the transition successful, consciously look for things to do. Resurrect an old hobby or find a new one. Travel to visit family and spend time with your grandchildren. If you can't travel, call them on the phone or use email. Stay connected and interested and you will find a whole new world.
